Summer Holiday Programme

Monday 27th July – Friday 4th September

Regent Learning is a highly successful after school centre, which provides supplementary tuition for students from ages 3-18, specialising in Key Stage, GCSE and A Level courses on a group and one to one basis.

Who attends Regent Learning?

Regent Learning is suitable for all school age students, whatever their level of knowledge and confidence.

A Proven Approach

Whatever the course you decide to take with Regent Learning, our systematic plan helps students by creating confidence, boosting motivation and by developing academic success at school or college.

Our Students will achieve:

- Learning Success
- Improved Knowledge
- Increased Confidence
- Positive Attitude
- Exam Success

This programme is primarily designed to deliver an intensive and methodical course, which is suitable for every student and is tailored to their requirements.

The Holiday Club programme incorporates the following:

- English
- Mathematics

The purpose of this course is to boost and supplement the key skills of each student in each of the above areas, to ensure that they can apply these skills within their subjects, in order to further enhance their academic attainment.

Programme Structure

The Holiday Club programme lasts five days per week. There are 2 hours of teaching each day, with a total of 10 hours for the week. Bookings can be made for specific days during the week, or for the entire week. Each subject consists of an hour per day, with appropriate breaks allocated.

Duration
